SCHOOL CLUBS

Wild Climbers Club: Wild Climbers is a scheme set out by the National Indoor Climbing Award Scheme (NICAS). It is designed so that it can be delivered without a climbing wall by looking at the principles that make for a good climber (and most sports). It's designed for 3+ and to be adaptable to all.
Archery Club: Following Archery GB Just Shoot scheme which is designed to track and reward progress in the sport. More info here Just Shoot Awards Scheme.
Circus Skills Club: Juggling, stilt walking, flower stick tricks, diablo, plate spinning and poi. We have lots of tricks up our sleeves that we can pass on to your students. Adjustable the age group and skills within.
Bushcraft and Outdoors Club: Passing on our years of scouting experience, learn survival skills, fire lighting, shelter building, water purification and camp crafting.
Orienteering Club: Learn important navigation skills using paper and digital methods to follow and create orienteering routes and build. Great for physical and mental stimulation as well as developing a key life skill.
Fencing Club: Learn all the skills and techniques to become a skilled fencer. Follow the British Fencing award schemes to track progress.

Only available November to April (Terms 2, 3 and 4). Running Duke of Edinburgh Award Scheme? These club can be run to meet the requirement of the Physical section!

From £10/person a week*

ADVENTURE DAY

If you would like to host us for the day or run a multi activity adventure day or event at your venue then please contact us to discuss details and tailor your day.
We will create a quote based on your needs.
